

St Anthony's Hospital

Personal Profile

Mrs Jenny L C Geh BM BS, BMedSci, MSc, FRCSEdPLAST

Consultant Plastic and Reconstructive Surgeon

St George's Hospital, Tooting and Queen
Mary's Hospital, Roehampton.

Present NHS post

Mrs Jenny L C Geh is a Consultant Plastic Surgeon with a special interest in melanoma, sentinel lymph node biopsy, non melanoma skin cancers, reconstructive surgery for all skin lesions, including eyelid, ear and nose reconstruction. She treats all aspects of plastic surgery including trauma and hand surgery.

Cosmetic Surgery interests

Breast Augmentation, reductions, mastopexy, all aspects of facial rejuvenation including face and brow lift, blepharoplasty, rhinoplasty, all aspects of ear surgery, liposculpture, fat transfer and abdominoplasty.

Plastic surgery training

She studied cosmetic surgery throughout her training, in addition to attending aesthetic lists and clinics. She also trained in ear reconstruction and paediatric plastic surgery.

Specialist Registrar in Plastic Surgery on the London Pan Thames rotation, working at St Andrew's Centre for Burns and Plastics, the Royal London and St Bartholomew's University Hospitals, Guy's and St Thomas's Teaching Hospitals and finally Great Ormond Street Hospital for children. She was a Senior House Officer in Plastic Surgery at St James' University hospital, Leeds and Queen Mary's University hospital, Roehampton. She trained at the University of Nottingham.

Research

She was a Wellcome Research Fellow at University College hospital, in the Department of Anatomy and Embryology. She also has a Masters degree in Surgical Sciences with distinction and Professor's Prize.

Interests

She has an interest in skin oncology, cosmetic, reconstructive, paediatric, ear and hand surgery. She has made special visits to the Sydney Melanoma Unit and Cosmetic surgeons in central London and Paris. She is also involved in the training of medical students at St George's University hospital, London.

Research interests include melanoma and embryology and developmental genetics of disease.

Learned Societies

She is a member of the British Association of Plastic Reconstructive and Aesthetic Surgeons and has written many papers and presented to learned societies over the years, the most recent being the Journal of Plastic, Reconstructive and Aesthetic Surgery and Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery.

She is on the specialist register with the General Medical Council number 3618381.

Clinics at St. Anthony's Hospital alternate Tuesday afternoons.
Appointments 020 8335 4678 / 4679

© Copyright MMVII St Anthony's Hospital